

CHELSEY AMENT & JOE ROSSNER

AUGUST 9, 2014

FROM CHELSEY: Joe and I went to high school together before meeting again in a pub in Victoria. Fast-forward a few years later, Joe popped the question in the living room of our first apartment together. He just couldn't wait, and it was such a surprise. The first time we visited Bird's Eye Cove we knew we wanted to get married there. The views were breathtaking, and we loved the fresh outdoor, casual feeling of it all. I have spent a lot of time in Alberta, where my family is from, so I just clicked with the barn atmosphere. For our ceremony, Joe's cousins, Andrea and Ben, played Ed Sheeran's "Kiss Me" as I walked down the aisle. It was amazing. I was nervous, but as soon as I saw Joe I totally calmed down and was not nervous at all to marry him! Our reception was complete with all our favourite food, from a pig roast at dinner to wood-fired pizza for a late-night snack. Joe and I were the last two standing as we filled the last bus back to the hotel in Cowichan with 70 people who stayed until 1:00 a.m. We both had so much fun. Our theme was "Best Day Ever"—and it really was.
