

BRITTANY STEWART & DANIEL HORNER

JULY 6, 2013

SPARKS FLEW BETWEEN BRITTANY AND DANIEL over an impromptu conversation in the sandwich queue at Trinity Western University where they first met. Fast-forward to 2013, when the two were married in Brittany's grandmother's backyard, which happens to be in Hidden Harbour, nestled on the coast of Vancouver Island. A rustic wooden arbour was all that was needed to decorate the spectacular setting. Brittany's incandescent smile was matched by her gown, which she describes as "the kind of dress that dreams are made of." She also donned jewellery passed down from her great-grandmothers, including a piece her mother wore on her own wedding day. "I'm so lucky to have these women in my life, and I wanted to walk down the aisle wearing pieces that meant something to each of them," Brittany explains.

CLOCKWISE FROM TOP LEFT

"Our wedding day was filled with love, friendship and celebration. I married the most amazing man I know," Brittany gushes; Brittany's bridal bouquet paralleled the soft and romantic ambience of the entire day; The Maritime Heritage Centre was transformed into a delicate and intimate setting with soft and natural florals and pops of white and green; Brittany stands with her bridesmaids who wore pretty pink dresses for the occasion; Mason jars filled with flowers line the aisle of the beach.

DETAILS

- bridal gown Tara Keely at Bisou Bridal, bisoubridal.com
- bridal party attire OuterInner, outerinner.com
- caterer Royal Coachman Neighbourhood Pub, royalcoachmaninn.ca
- ceremony location Private beach in Hidden Harbour
- flowers Kenmar Flower Farm, kenmarflowerfarm.com
- photography Jamie Delaine, jamiedelaine.com
- reception location Maritime Heritage Centre, maritimeheritagecentre.ca

SEE MORE at weddingbells.ca/brittanyanddaniel.

TEXT ALESSIA PICCOLO. EDITOR ROSEANNE DELA ROSA.